

Plug in to simplicity

The CS-100 brings the ClickShare experience to small meeting and huddle rooms.

Smart Meetings with Barco

There is an estimated 1.06 million meeting rooms in the UK alone. Nearly half of those are small meeting rooms, while another 35% fall under the category 'medium'. This vast number of meeting rooms present an enormous opportunity to sell the Barco portfolio.

Sharing your content, your way

Whatever the size of your customers' meeting spaces, there's a Barco Clickshare solution to match. From huddle spaces to conference rooms, all Barco ClickShares can be centrally managed, have configurable security options, and application enabled sharing.

Why Maverick for Barco

Our dedicated team are here to help and advise you and your customer so you can create a complete, bespoke AV solution with Barco. We have doubled our stock holding for our resellers to ensure rapid deployment for winter projects. And with a range of complimentary services available, there's never been a better time to buy.
